

School of Kinesiology Teaching Assistant Application

Application Deadline — April 30th

Please complete the following form using Adobe Reader 7 or later.
You may drop off the completed form or email it as an attachment to: kin.gradsec@ubc.ca

Surname _____ First Name _____ Degree _____

Student Number _____ Email _____ Supervisor _____

Please rank order the top 5 courses for which you consider yourself qualified to TA:

(See the UBC Calendar for course descriptions. Course offerings will be confirmed at a later date.)

1. _____ 4. _____

2. _____ 5. _____

3. _____

Identify training, preparation, and other experiences which may qualify you for a Teaching Assistantship in the courses that you selected. DO NOT EXCEED THE ALLOTTED SPACE BELOW.

THE FINE PRINT

There are limited funds available to support the School’s graduate students and they are awarded on a competitive basis. The selection criteria include GPA, reference letters, and other evidence of scholarly activity. In accepting a contract assignment, new TAs are required to attend info/orientation sessions set up by their union.

Teaching Assistants help instructors with overall course delivery and evaluation. Duties can include setting up labs and classroom equipment, marking assignments and exams, conducting labs, and invigilating final exams.

- ELIGIBILITY:
- Master’s students may be awarded Teaching Assistantships for a maximum of 2 Teaching Years, subject to maintaining full-time graduate student status.
 - Doctoral students may be awarded Teaching Assistantships for a maximum of 5 Teaching Years, subject to maintaining full-time graduate student status.
 - Reassignment after the first year is dependent upon satisfactory execution of TA responsibilities.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity. We encourage all qualified applicants to apply.