

The University of British Columbia
 School of Kinesiology
 Vancouver Campus
SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS, AND PRIZES
FOR THE 2016/17 WINTER SESSION

INFORMATION PACKAGE

The School of Kinesiology offers a number of Scholarships, Awards, and Prizes, which are available only to students registered in the School of Kinesiology.

All details regarding the application and selection process are included in this package. Students can apply for as many scholarships, awards, or prizes for which they are eligible. However, only one application form is required regardless of the number of scholarships, awards, or prizes applied for. Students who have any questions regarding the application should direct their questions to Gail Wilson, Scholarship Coordinator at gail.wilson@ubc.ca.

Applications are to be submitted to the School of Kinesiology Advising Office, Room 202, War Memorial Gymnasium. Applications may also be sent by email to deborah.gromer@ubc.ca. All applications must be received no later than FRIDAY, MAY 26, 2017.

CONTENTS

PAGE 2	GENERAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA SELECTION PROCESS
PAGE 3	HOW TO APPLY
PAGE 4-5	DESCRIPTIONS AND SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR ALL SCHOLARSHIPS
PAGE 6-8	DESCRIPTIONS AND SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR ALL AWARDS AND PRIZES
PAGE 9	APPLICATION FORM

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Students must meet all of the following General Criteria to be eligible for any Kinesiology Scholarship, Award, or Prize.

1. Completed 27 credits during the 2016-17 winter session (September to April). Under exceptional circumstances, such as a demonstrated commitment to Varsity athletics or high performance sport, illness, or exceptional personal hardship, full time students who take less than 27 credits MAY be considered by the selection committee.
Students who have taken less than 27 credits should explain their exceptional personal circumstances in their personal statement (see page 3, step ii).
Eligibility for scholarships, awards and prizes is based solely on credits taken from September 2016 through April 2017 either at UBC, on exchange, or while on Co-op.
2. Achieved at least a 75% sessional average during the 2016-2017 academic year.

PLEASE NOTE: IN ADDITION TO MEETING THE GENERAL CRITERIA LISTED ABOVE, TO BE ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR, AND RECEIVE, ANY SCHOLARSHIP, STUDENTS MUST RETURN TO THE SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY AND REGISTER IN A FULL-TIME (24 credit minimum) UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM FOR THE 2017-2018 ACADEMIC YEAR

IF YOU ARE GRADUATING IN MAY 2017, AND NOT PLANNING ON TAKING COURSES DURING THE 2017 WINTER SESSION, YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO APPLY ONLY FOR AWARDS AND PRIZES

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection committee, comprised of the School's Undergraduate Committee, will evaluate all applications. Recommendations from the School's Selection Committee will be forwarded to the Department of Student Financial Services which will notify successful students. Results are not usually made available to students until some time in August or September. Please note that the School of Kinesiology cannot release the names of winners or any information regarding the status of applications. Successful students will be notified through their SSC account.

Recognition of all successful applications will take place at the School of Kinesiology Awards Night to be held in November 2017.

HOW TO APPLY

STEP 1: Read the detailed descriptions and specific eligibility criteria for each of the Scholarships, Awards, and Prizes (pages 4-8) to determine your eligibility. Only one application form needs to be submitted regardless of the number of scholarships, awards, and prizes you are applying for.

STEP 2: Complete the Application Form and sign the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. These documents can be found on page 9 of this package.

STEP 3: Include the following documents with your application, or attach, if submitting your application electronically.

i. A Detailed Resume: Focusing on the last 3 to 4 years. Include your education, employment, volunteer activities, contributions to the School of Kinesiology, to the University of British Columbia, and to the community. Please clearly identify employment and volunteer activities. For your volunteer activities include the amount of time (hours, days, months, years) that you devoted to each activity.

ii. Personal Statement: Elaborating on the details in your resume, write a personal statement which addresses academic achievement and competency in your chosen field of study, career goals, leadership, and service to the School of Kinesiology, the University of British Columbia, and the community. The Personal Statement should not exceed 500 words and should be written in Times New Roman font size 12 with  $\frac{3}{4}$ " margins.

iii. 2 CURRENT, Confidential, Letters of Reference - Confirming and describing your involvement in the activities outlined in your resume and your personal statement. Sealed reference letters can be mailed, or hand delivered to the School of Kinesiology Undergraduate Advising Office, 202-6081 University Boulevard, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z1, or may be sent by email directly from the person writing the reference letter to deborah.gromer@ubc.ca.

SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS

DESCRIPTIONS AND SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Note: Applicants should be aware that the amounts listed are approximate, and if invested funds or donor contributions do not provide the necessary income for any scholarship, prize, or award, the University reserves the right to reduce the stated value or withhold the award.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION ALUMNI AND KINESIOLOGY FACULTY SCHOLARSHIPS

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 1, 2, or 3 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for these scholarships.

Scholarships totaling $7,490 have been endowed by alumni of the School and by donations from the School of Kinesiology faculty, past and present. The scholarships are awarded to undergraduate students in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program who have displayed academic achievement, leadership, and competency in their field of specialization. The scholarships are made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

WILLIAM B. McNULTY KINESIOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 1, 2, or 3 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for these scholarships.

Two $600 scholarships have been made available by William B. McNulty, B.P.E. '68, M.P.E. '70, M.A. '83. The awards are made to students entering the second, third or fourth year who have combined academic excellence with an outstanding contribution in student or community affairs. Emphasis is put upon "service above self". One award is made to a male student, the other to a female student. The awards are made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

HEATHER LAWSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Year and Program Eligibility: Female students registered in Year 3 of the Interdisciplinary Studies program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

As a memorial to Heather Lawson, a third-year student in the School of Physical Education and Recreation tragically killed in a skiing accident in March 1972, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Lawson of Victoria, have endowed a scholarship of $700. It is awarded to a student, preferably a woman, enrolled in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program, with a specialization in the Interdisciplinary Studies Program who is proceeding to the fourth year of the program. The basis of the award is sound academic standing and all round qualities of leadership. The scholarship is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

Continued on Page 5

SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS

JANIE AND HECTOR WRIGHT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 1, 2, or 3 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

A $1,000 scholarship has been endowed by Janie D. Wright BPE '56, in memory of her parents. The award is offered to an undergraduate student in Kinesiology and is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology

SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Year and Program Eligibility: International students in Year 1, 2, or 3 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

Scholarships of amounts of up to $10,000 each are offered to continuing international students at the School of Kinesiology, Vancouver campus. Students selected for these scholarships must have completed 60 credits towards their undergraduate degree or be entering the third year of their program. Students must demonstrate strong academic achievement, engagement in the School, and the potential to make a scholarly contribution within their chosen field of study. The scholarships are made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

MARY ISDALE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 3 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

A $450 scholarship is offered to a student who achieves high academic standing in the third year of any field of study. Consideration is given to eligible students who, over a period of years, have demonstrated particular interest in highland dancing, Scottish country dancing, piping or drumming. The award is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

ANNE D. TILLEY SCHOLARSHIP IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 1, 2, or 3 in the 2016 Winter Session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

A scholarship of $850 has been endowed by Ms. Anne D. Tilley for an undergraduate student or a graduate student enrolled in the School of Kinesiology who is interested in the field of developmental disability/mental handicap/intellectual disability. The scholarship is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology and, in the case of a graduate student, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

CAPTAIN C.Y. WU SCHOLARSHIP IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 1 or 2, in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this scholarship.

A scholarship of $900 is endowed by Captain C.Y. Wu and Dr. C.H. Wu, to a second or third-year student in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program who has demonstrated an interest in aquatic coaching or management. Preference is given to a student with a background in aquatics. The scholarship is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this scholarship. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

Continued on Page 6

SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY AWARDS & PRIZES

DESCRIPTIONS AND SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Note: Applicants should be aware that the amounts listed are approximate, and if invested funds or donor contributions do not provide the necessary income for any scholarship, prize, or award, the University reserves the right to reduce the stated value or withhold the award.

W. GORDON BRANDRETH PRIZE IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 of the Kinesiology and Health Science Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A $450 prize has been endowed by Mrs. Bertha Brandreth in memory of her husband W. Gordon Brandreth. The prize is offered to a student who is pursuing studies in the Kinesiology and Health Sciences program in the School of Kinesiology, and is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

LIEUTENANT JAMES DOUGLAS HAMILTON PRIZE

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 3 of the Physical and Health Education Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A prize of $450, in memory of Lieutenant James Douglas Hamilton, a graduate in Physical Education and a former member of the COTC of this University, who, on April 13, 1952, was killed in action in Korea, is offered by the Kinesiology Alumni and Undergraduate Societies. The award is open to third year students in Physical and Health Education showing academic and physical proficiency. The prize is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this prize. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

KINESIOLOGY UNDERGRADUATE SOCIETY PRIZE

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

These prizes have been initiated by members of the Kinesiology Undergraduate Society and are intended to recognize students who have made unselfish contributions to student and faculty life. These prizes in the amount of approximately $250 will be awarded annually to students in third or fourth year of the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program, who have maintained a high overall academic average and have demonstrated leadership qualities through extra-curricular activities within the field of Kinesiology. Reference letters by professionals in the field should support the application. The prizes will be made on the recommendation of the School in consultation with the Kinesiology Undergraduate Society.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this prize. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

R. F. OSBORNE PRIZE

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 of the Physical and Health Education Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A prize of $350, in recognition of Robert F. Osborne's long and dedicated service to Physical Education, is awarded to a student in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program, with general academic proficiency, leadership and service in the field of Physical and Health Education. The prize is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this prize. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins

Continued on Page 7

SCHOOL OF KINESIOLOGY AWARDS AND PRIZES

JOHN B. SERVICE MEMORIAL PRIZE IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 of the Kinesiology and Health Science Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A $550 prize has been endowed by family and friends in memory of John B. Service. The award is offered to a student specializing in the Kinesiology and Health Science Program and is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology and, in the case of graduate students, in consultation with the Faculty of Graduate Studies.

ROBERT F. OSBORNE MEMORIAL AWARD IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Students who are returning to the School of Kinesiology in the 2016 winter session are eligible to apply for this award.

An award of approximately $4,800 has been endowed in memory of Dr. Robert F. Osborne's outstanding service as coach, teacher and administrator during his 33 years as a faculty member at UBC, 27 of them as Director of the School of Physical Education and Recreation. The award is available to undergraduate students returning to the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program who have exhibited excellence in academics, athletics, and service in sport and recreation. The award is made on the recommendation of the School.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

J.J. McRAE MEMORIAL PRIZE

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 of the Physical and Health Education Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A prize of $550, endowed by Mrs. R.F. Osborne in memory of her father, J.J. McRae, is awarded to a student in third or fourth year of the Physical and Health Education program of the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree with general academic proficiency who has made a contribution to youth work. Special consideration is given to a student who has worked with the blind or other handicapped groups. The prize is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this prize. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

PETER ANDREW MARRON MEMORIAL AWARD

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Years 3 or 4 of the Kinesiology and Health Science Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A $2,450 award has been endowed in memory of Peter Andrew Marron by his father George A. Marron. The award is available to a student in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program who is pursuing studies in the Kinesiology and Health Sciences Program, or involved in research work, who displays scholarship, leadership and perseverance. The award is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

LEONARD OSBORNE MEMORIAL PRIZE

Year and Program Eligibility: Students registered in Year 3 of the Physical and Health Education Program in the 2016 Winter session are eligible to apply for this prize.

A $550 prize, endowed by Robert F. Osborne in memory of his father J. Leonard Osborne, is awarded to a student in the third year of the Physical and Health Education program of the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program with general academic proficiency, who has demonstrated expertise and leadership in the field of coaching. The prize is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this prize. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

DR. RICHARD L. RAMSAY AWARD IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Open to all School of Kinesiology students registered in Years 1, 2, 3, or 4 of any program in the 2016 Winter Session.

A $2,000 award is offered annually by Margaret Ramsay and family in honour of her late husband, Richard (Dick) Ramsay. The award is open to outstanding undergraduate students enrolled in the School of Kinesiology who are also involved in the recreational activities at UBC. Dick Ramsay developed the Recreation-Education degree program at UBC in the mid-1960s. He felt strongly that leadership skills were not only learned in the classroom but from engaging in the local community. The award is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

BARBARA SCHRODT AWARD IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Open to all School of Kinesiology students registered in Years 2, 3, or 4 of any program in the 2016 Winter Session.

An award of $1,000 has been endowed by Barbara Schrodt for an undergraduate student entering or registered in the third or fourth year in the Bachelor of Kinesiology degree program who has been an outstanding playing member of a women's field hockey team at UBC and is taking courses related to teaching physical and health education. The award is not to exceed $1,000, and is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology in consultation with the Intercollegiate Coordinator, Department of Athletics

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

CARLEY "KITTY" ROSALINE KENNEDY MEMORIAL LEADERSHIP AWARD FOR ABORIGINAL STUDENTS

Year and Program Eligibility: Open to all Aboriginal School of Kinesiology students registered in Years 3 or 4 of any program in the 2016 Winter Session are eligible to apply for this award.

A $1,000 award has been made available through an endowment established by the School of Kinesiology, in memory of Carley "Kitty" Rosaline Kennedy. In Kitty's words, "Follow your heart but let your body lead the way and BE the health for the life you want to live." The award is for a third or fourth year Aboriginal student in the School of Kinesiology who has demonstrated inspirational leadership in their community and in Aboriginal programs at UBC. To be considered, students need to be registered in any courses or the Co-op program in the School of Kinesiology. The award is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.

ALAN JURISTOVSKI MEMORIAL AWARD IN KINESIOLOGY

Year and Program Eligibility: Open to all students entering Years 3 or 4 in the Kinesiology and Health Science Program in the 2016 Winter Session are eligible to apply for this award.

A $1,200 award is offered by Cara Rurak (BHK' 12) to a student entering his/her fourth year in Kinesiology and Health Science. The award is given in memory of Alan Juristovski, a man who touched the lives of so many with his fierce compassion, kindness and brilliance. Candidates must be in good academic standing and have a diverse set of volunteer experience. Preference will be given to students who wish to enter into a career in medicine. The award is made on the recommendation of the School of Kinesiology.

You must provide a rationale of no more than 200 words explaining why you are a suitable candidate for this award. Please attach your rationale to your application, and write in Times New Roman font size 12 with ¼" margins.