NOTES

- ❶ Students planning to apply to professional programs are strongly encouraged to determine the necessary undergraduate requirements that are available in other faculties such as Science and Arts.
 - ❷ Students in the Kinesiology Interdisciplinary Studies stream must complete a minimum of 18 credits of non-KIN electives, of which at least 12 credits must be at the 300/400-level.
 - ❸ All students must complete 30 credits of KIN at the 300/400-level
 - ❹ All students must complete 48 credits at the 300/400-level.
- LL = lower level (100/200-level)
UL = upper level (300/400-level)

Students must come in to advising in-person for an appointment before selecting the CREDIT/D/FAIL option for a course.
